she shares every feel wants to talk each event of the day with open mind

wholeheartedly

wants to be a part of their life
and them to be her

it's the feeling someone out there ready to care for help with no hope, expectation of any return

Our life

Till date, I believed marriage is an auspicious bond

My belief shattered seeing your acts, shocked to see change

Despite objections you brought me to start family.

Is it the life we visualized?
how you forgot vows?

Thinking how to live with you now
under the same roof

Don't think for your misdeeds I'll cry,
blame fate. you're wrong

Henceforth I'll console mind thinking tried my level best;

I can run my life alone, won't bother for your life.

One regret, failed to realize,
your sweet lies to me.

Enough of happy family life, leaving tonight.

Simple way to say when two use

Confusion

Unable to differentiate between two aspects

Both are just opposite to each other what's correct

What's told and what's reality
Still leading a life

It's a situation in which one is uncertain

What to do or not to do, not getting clarity.
~X~X~

We miss

We assume what we possess now
is never enough.

Constantly we are pursuing
of acquiring more;

We're in a state of deferred
living, want much more;

Believing the concept 'more is better' it's nonsense;

Wait for the day to feel compete
but that day won't come;

More possessions beyond required
never add value;

By wanting more we miss living
in present moment.

Have you thought why they come to you
to share their problems?

Cause you've showed some positive traits
in your workplace;

probably treated them kindly,
offering praise. care;

Cause you have listened to them
without judging;

You proved to be sympathetic
and understanding;

As they feel easy to share
their issues with you;

In fact, they feel appreciated
like to work with you;

nothing wrong to be empathic
leader, it's good thing.
~X~X~

Do we express affection through full attention?

By keeping away cell phone to hear with eye contact;

While listening the talk refrain
from giving advice;

Means focussed quality time when

Days after days

Inherent desire to acquire
more information;

What forces many to switch on TV
to know what's going;

Prime time news shows one part of the incident, not full;

Opinions placed are one-sided,
not reality;

Days after days same things happen
it can't be by chance;

Frustration arises from the thought of wasting time;

A common man can do nothing except switching off TV.

~X~X~

Dreaming

Post retirement one benefit is plenty of time;

You can spend hours to day dream

Great advantage of dreaming is nothing on record;

Good part is no one has any expectation;

You have complete liberty to think what comes to mind.

Failure

It's fact of not doing something
what one must do;

Failure can make one feel hopeless,
helpless and anxious.

Don't be afraid of failure,
learn what not to do

Failure leads to creativity,
and tenacity

Failure teaches us to learn from our mistakes

Break down the task in question to those aspects in parts;

What are in one's control and those that are not.

Peruse the list of aspects that are not in control;

Figure out how to take control
of them —by what way?

Should one try to improve skill-set,
knowledge, planning?

Finding what exactly missing
now focus rightly;

On those aspects that are in one's own control fully;

Feeling in one's control is a great motivator;

It's antidote to feelings of helplessness;

Motivates to try again,
minimize failure;

It increases likelihood of success.

Benefit of failure is one can improve next time.
